PHILADELPHIA, July 17.

On Sunday, the 13th Inſtant, died at Fair-Hill, in the 65th Year of his Age, after a long Indiſpoſition, ſupported with exemplary Fortitude, and Chriſtian Reſignation, ISAAC NORRIS, Eſq; a Gentleman of great natural and acquired Abilities; one of the Aldermen of this City, and, for near 20 Years, Speaker of the General Aſſembly.

NEW-YORK, July 14.

On Friday Night laſt four Officers of the Regulars, poſted here, ſallied from a Tavern where they had drank too freely, and near the College began to break the City Lamps---A Man who keeps a public Houſe there happened to be up and leaning over his Door when they broke a Lamp juſt before him; upon his aſking the Reaſon of it, and reproving them, they gave him abuſive Language, ruſhed into the Houſe, attacked him with their Swords, and, while he was ſtruggling with them, they wounded him in the Arm, and it was with Difficulty he eſcaped with Life.---They then behaved in a very outrageous Manner, alarmed and terrified the Family and Lodgers, ſome of whom they pulled from their Beds: After this they proceeded down the Broad Way, attended by two armed Soldiers, breaking the Lamps as they went, till they had deſtroyed 34, when they were met by four of the Watch, and a Frey enſued; ſeveral of the Watchmen were wounded, (one or two of them badly) and two of the Officers knock'd down, but one only was taken and ſecured in the Watch Houſe, The other three who eſcaped, having taken the Centinals from the General's Door, and about a Dozen Soldiers from the Fort, armed with Muſkets and fixed Bayonets, proceeded towards the City Hall: In the Way they again met, attacked and wounded ſeveral of the Watch, and then went on to the City-Hall, where the Civil Watch is kept, and reſcued and releaſed the Priſoner.---Next Day the Officer who had been in the Watch-Houſe being ſeen and known, was taken up, and another ſoon after, and brō't before the Mayor and Aldermen then ſitting, where they gave Bail in a large Sum for their Appearance to anſwer at the Supreme Court.---The Penalty is Twenty Pounds for every Lamp wilfully broken.

The genteel Behaviour of the Commanding Officer upon the Occaſion, gave general Satisfaction;---far from attempting to ſcreen or countenance the Offenders, he appeared rather a Friend and a Supporter of the Civil Authority.

Since our laſt one John Hurlow, belonging to Capt. Cuyler's Company of Grenadiers of the 46th Regiment, being convicted at a Court Martial of a capital Crime, for which he was ſentenced to receive ſome Hundred Laſhes; when it was going to be executed, he ſtabbed himſelf in the right Side, of which wound he ſoon died.

Messieurs PRINTERS,

Please to insert the following.

To a late PETITIONER. *G. Mersery

SIR,

Your unprecedented Petition lately presented to you, to an honorable Assembly, deserves intitles you to some more particular Notice I find has yet been paid you. It seems, Sir, in Consequence of being honored with the Appointment of Distributor of Stamped Paper, &c. were obliged to leave England rather earlier than your private Affairs would well admit; that upon your Arrival, you found the Colonies in a State of the utmost Confusion and Disorder; that you have been scandalously abused and insulted, and intimidated from engaging in any Business for the Support of yourself and Family. You therefore pray that some Compensation may be made you for the Losses you have sustained. This Sir, I believe you will acknowledge a just Analysis of your very extraordinary, and most modest Petition; upon which I beg Leave to make two or three Remarks.

If then you were obliged to leave England earlier than you should have chose; if you have suffered many Frights, and have been intimidated from pursuing your common Business: If this, I say, is really the Case, whom have you to thank for it, but yourself? Why did you accept an Office which you must have perceived, (if capable of Reflection) would have issued, if executed, in the Ruin of your Country? If you have suffered, are you not righteously punished for doing what you could towards enslaving the present and future Generations? Could you, sustaining the Character you did, expect any other Treatment from a People, among whom you came vested with an Office, worse than that of an Egyptian Task-Master? I beg, Sir, you would return a cool, dispassionate Answer to these Queries; which if you do, you will then be likely to see your Petition in that Light, in which it becomes you to view it. The single Impudence of any one Individual, I should not have judged equal to such an Address. Could you flatter yourself that any Regard would be paid to it? Was it not rather to be expected, that you would be treated with that Contempt and Neglect, which such dirty Principles as you must be actuated by, loudly call for? It was the Height of Folly as well as Impudence in you, to expect any Allowance would be made you for your negative Losses, by those whose total Ruin would have been brought on by the Execution of your detestable Commission. Could you imagine that you should be rewarded by a Grant, for the Part you have acted? What Absurdity! What Stupidity! And are you, do you think, most modest Sir, and the Persons who were invested with the same Office as yourself, the only Ones who have suffered by a late Act? What do you think of the whole mercantile and trading Interest of these Colonies, who suffered a Suspension of Trade and Commerce to their very great Prejudice and Loss? If you had obtained any Relief, how much more properly might they have prayed an Indemnification, who had never rendered themselves justly odious by accepting such Employ as you had engaged in?

I leave you Sir to your own Reflections, which if you you have any Sense of Shame (which is very problematical) must be very painful, with observing to you, that the Repulse you have met with from the honorable House to which you addressed yourself, is universally applauded, and has gained it the greatest Honor and Credit.

I am, Sir, with Admiration of your uncommon Qualities. A. B.

P. S. The Insults and Abuse you complain of, I believe, Sir, may be attributed to your own imprudent Conduct, as the Acceptance of your Office must be to your Baseness. You well know, Sir, that previous to your landing here, you sent on Shore a voluntary Resignation of your Commission: Now, Sir, had your future Behaviour in P--------h corresponded with this Resignation, it is not to be supposed you would have met with Insults and Abuse, nor have been intimidated from following your proper Business. So far from it, you would have been caressed and esteemed by those, who from Opposers, would have become your Friends, if they had observed in you an honorable Adherence to your Engagements. Therefore, Sir, your Complaints serve to render you more infamous, by proving you to have been guilty of a base Defection from your Promises. A. B.
